

The personal information collected on this form is collected under the legal authority of the Royal Charter of 1847, as amended. The personal information collected on this form will be used to officially register you in your course selections.

This form must be returned to the Graduate Studies & Research office as soon as possible

All course registrations are on a first come first serve basis

Program Planning Form
NEW STUDENTS
Ph.D. in Education Program

In order to ensure that you gain maximum benefit from your experiences in the Ph.D. in Education program, it is essential that careful and systematic program planning takes place on admission. To this end, you are required to meet with your Supervisor before registration for the purpose of designing a suitable program of study and completion of this form.

Name: Student Number:

Email Address:

Fall Term Course #	Year	Area of Study	Winter Term Course #	Year	Area of Study	Spring/Summer Term Course #	Year	Area of Study

Which field are you planning to pursue? Please check the appropriate box(s).

Major (check one):

- Curriculum Studies
- Cognitive Studies
- Cultural & Policy Studies

Minor (check one):

- Curriculum Studies
- Cognitive Studies
- Cultural & Policy Studies

I understand that the courses listed above constitute an approved program of study for the Ph.D. in Education program. I also understand that any changes in this list of courses should be discussed and approved by my Supervisor and the Coordinator of Graduate Studies and Bureau of Research in Education.

Student's Signature:

Date:

Supervisor's Signature:

Date:

Associate Dean's Signature:

Date: